

Educational tour

Report:

On 25 January 2025, a group of B. Sc. 2nd and B. Sc. 3rd year students from our college embarked on an educational tour of the wooden cold-pressed oil factory at the Natraj (Kacchi Ghani Raipur).

Introduction:

The objective of this tour was to gain practical knowledge about the production process of cold-pressed oil and understand the significance of traditional wooden presses in the industry.

Factory overview:

The Natraj wooden cold-pressed oil factory is a renowned establishment in the region. Specialization in the production of high-quality cold-pressed oils. The factory has been in operation for 4 years and has gained a reputation for its commitment to quality and sustainability. The educational tour of the Natraj Kacchi Ghani factory was an enriching experience for our group. We gained valuable insights into the production process of cold-pressed oil and appreciated the significance of traditional wooden presses in the industry.

Acknowledgement:

We would like to thank Natraj Wooden Press Cold Oil Factory for providing us with this educational opportunity. We would like to express our gratitude to the factory management and staff for their hospitality and for sharing their knowledge and experiences with us. We would also like to thank our principal mam Dr. Sonita Satsangi of our college for organizing this tour and providing us with the necessary resources and support.
